Shake N' Cor & the Bonetones music is Original Blues-Roots music with Jazz-Gospel-sometimes rockin' overtones. the music is led by singer songwriter Corry Suter's sultry vocals, Shakey Reay Suter's soulful World Class Harmonica, & backed by award winning players Sandy Sandybone Smith on drums, Dave "Double D" Dykhuizen on Guitar, Keith "Poppy" Picot on Acoustic Bass, & Dave Webb on Piano.

Corry Suter is moved from Holland to Canada as a child & has been a productive Singer Songwriter for over 20 years, & an amazing visual artist for longer than that. She has brilliant works in many mediums including Oil & acrylic, watercolor, soapstone sculpture, pen & ink, pencil, clay sculpture, & more. She has a natural gift for songwriting, & has been writing & singing since childhood.

The harmonica playing of Shakey Reay Suter has enhanced the airwaves, stereos, and stages of Canada and the United States for over twenty years.

He spent most of the 80's on the road out of Winnipeg in Blues, Country, Country rock, and Folk acts, playing in clubs and festivals across Canada. His bands there included the popular Country Rock band Steelwater and the Bourbon Street Blues band.

In late 1988, Shakey Reay arrived in Vancouver, where he became a mainstay of the live music & studio scene, recording on countless jingles, demos and Cd's, including recording sessions with Will Millar(Irish Rovers), Colin James, Jack Lavin(Powder Blues), Billy Cowsill, and the Last Wild Sons. His bands there included a year with Muddy Fraser Band With Sandybone , two Years with Clyde Roulette, a year with the T-Bones with Sandybone, & Steve Kozak, and a year with Russell Jackson(Bass player with BB King for 7 years). With Russell and Clyde he toured extensively in U.S. and Canada. In 1990, Shakey won the Yale Hotel Harp Wars Championship in Vancouver.
